This week's message

Jesus Calls the First Disciples (Luke 5:1-11)

In Luke 5:1-11, Simon Peter and a few other fishermen were having a hard day catching fish (which means they were failing at their job and were not going to be making any money for their work). But then Jesus showed up and asked them to put their nets down one more time, and the boats overflowed with tons of fish. Simon Peter and the other disciples realized that there was something different about Jesus and that following him would be better than even being successful at something that mattered to them a lot, so they left everything they had to follow Jesus. The gospel is the good news that Jesus gave up everything (including his life) to die for us, so that we can be forgiven of our sins and have a relationship with God. Jesus went ALL-IN for us, and that naturally motivates us to want to go ALL-IN to follow him.

AU3Q (Armour Up 3 Questions):

Read Luke 5:1-11 to be reminded of the story

1. If you were one of the fishermen, why do you think that Simon Peter and the other guys decided to leave everything to follow Jesus, and what is one thing that you might need to leave behind to have a better relationship with Jesus?
2. Why do you think that Simon Peter said, “Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord!” (verse 8)?
3. Now think about this: Jesus actually gave up everything to save us. But he didn't just leave some fish behind. He left heaven and gave up his life so that you and I could have a relationship with God. What does that teach you about Jesus and about you?
